"My master is Heleth". She lay awake in the little house, feeling the air stifling and the ceiling pressing down on her, then slept suddenly and deeply. She woke as suddenly when the east was just getting light. She went to the door to see what she loved best to see, the sky before sunrise. Looking down from it she saw Azver the Patterner rolled up in his grey cloak, sound asleep on the ground before her doorstep. She withdrew noiselessly into the house. In a little while she saw him going back to his woods, walking a bit stiffly and scratching his head as he went, as people do when half awake..disgusted by him. How could he frighten a creature already blind and beshatten with fear? He set a."No use," said the old wizard, grinning, "you're only wind and sunlight. Now I'm going to be dirt and stone.
